§5–202.

- (a) The Department shall control all substances listed in Subtitle 4 of this title.
- (b) In accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, the Department may add a substance as a controlled dangerous substance on its own initiative or on the petition of an interested party.
- (c) To determine whether to add a substance as a controlled dangerous substance, the Department shall consider:
  - (1) the actual or relative potential for abuse of the substance;
- (2) if known, scientific evidence of the pharmacological effect of the substance:
  - (3) the state of current scientific knowledge regarding the substance;
  - (4) the history and current pattern of abuse of the substance;
  - (5) the scope, duration, and significance of abuse of the substance;
  - (6) any risk that the substance poses to the public health;
- (7) the ability of the substance to cause psychological or physiological dependence; and
- (8) whether the substance is an immediate precursor of a controlled dangerous substance.
- (d) After considering the factors listed in subsection (c) of this section, the Department shall:
  - (1) make findings with respect to those factors; and
- (2) issue an order to control the substance if the Department finds that the substance has a potential for abuse.

- (e) If the Department designates a substance as an immediate precursor of a controlled dangerous substance, a substance that is a precursor of the immediate precursor is not subject to control solely because it is a precursor of the immediate precursor.
- (f) (1) A new substance that is designated as a controlled substance under federal law is a similarly controlled dangerous substance under this title unless the Department objects to the inclusion.
- (2) If the Department objects, it shall publish the reasons for the objection and give each interested party an opportunity to be heard.
- (3) After the hearing, the Department shall publish its decision, which is final.
- (4) An action for judicial review of a final decision made in accordance with this section does not stay the effect of the decision.
  - (g) The Department annually shall update and republish a schedule.
